INTRODUCTION AND ERRATA

Four years ago, I began gathering the names of all the children of John S. and Matilda (Kreigh) Rinehart and recently it was decided to follow up on all the descendants of the nine children who grew to maturity and bring it up-to-date as much as possible, by direct correspondences with each head of the families.

In the future, it is hoped to be able to trace the ancestry of John S and Matilda (Kreigh) Rinehart which should be traced to the States of Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania.

It was originally thought by some of the oldest living members of the Rinehart family that Adam Ellsworth Rinehart was a brother of John S. Rinehart, but a check of Adam E. Rinehart's death record showed he was a son of Michael and Margaret (Shere) Rinehart. The informat was Mary Rinehart, widow of Adam, reported on Jan. 26, 1925. The probability is that Michael Rinehart was the brother of John S. Rinehart. It is hoped that future research will be located to prove the exact relationship.

The descendants herewith recorded of Adam E. Rinehart are also brought up-to-date. I wish to acknowledge my thanks to all the descendants of John S. and Adam E. Rinehart for making this book possible in order to preserve the family records. It is hoped the errors are few if there are any.

I wish to make a few errata which were too late to enter in the book:

On page 4, the maiden name of Eva Rinehart should be Parshall. Also on the same page, Orpha (Rinehart) Hartsell died in Rolling Bay, Washington and was cremated there.

After coming to this county they settled on the farm where they are yet residing (1882). It is situated in Section 33, and it is well improved and comprises 240 acres of land. Mr. Mooney ranks among the best farmers and prominent citizens of his township. They have seven children:

They were married in the same county in Sept. 1818, and remained there until they moved to Erie Co., same State; and in 1864, emigrated to this county, lived in Lima Twp., one year, then returned to Penn., making a second trip to this county about two years subsequently, when they settled in this twp., where Mr. Mooney died Sept. 10, 1869 and she is yet living (1882). He came with the family of the latter, about a year afterward, to this county (LaGrange), settling in Lima Twp. on Section 20, and with them the subject remained until he was eighteen, when he commenced working out by the month, continued about two years, then went to Lima and began serving a three years' apprenticeship at the carpenter's trade, and followed the same for some time. In Feb. 5, 1843, he married Mary A. Parker, who was born in New York, July 10, 1820. All his earthly possession was an old horse he exchanged for its value in furniture, and began house keeping.
